Dedication

We, the Seniors of 1960, solemnly dedicate our yearbook, the Jayette, to our parents. We select you, Mom and Dad, in order to show our appreciation for your willingness and cooperation in helping us to reach this goal.

We feel we are a very special and privileged class to be able to graduate from the new school which was dedicated during our Senior year.

In future years, we will look back on this happy and joyous occasion.

Class Prophecy

The time is exactly 2:30 P.M., August 4, 1975. An atomic powered cruiser owned by David Schmidt is getting ready to leave from the New York harbor on a reunion cruise for the class of '60. The crusier was designed and built by Allen Eckholm, who was inspired by his Senior shop class.

Now arriving in his own plane is the world-famous water ski instructor of Miami University, Murph Gartner. Flying him to New York is Pat Reilly, who is now the President of Universal Airlines. On board the cruiser awaiting the departure, we find Jerry Growden, who has just won the National Bowling Tournament. Accompanying him is the Agriculture Instructor from the University of Minnesota, Wayne Staplekamp. In the Lounge we see Nancy Engle, producer of a famous Broadway Theatre, and Shirley Hanson, owner of Lullabye Nursery in New York discussing Jeanne Thorson, the new "Mrs. America." Here comes our host, David Schmidt, treasurer of the United States with Jeanette Larsen discussing this years' budget. They are joined by Ruth and Joyce Roelofs, who own and manage the Old Dutch Potato Chip Company. Also with them are Pat Johnson, chief operator of the New York Exchange, and Jerilyn Hovey, head stenographer at the United Nations. On the deck we see Steve Foster and Stan Nelson reminiscing their "old football days" and P.H.S.

Well, the boat is ready to leave. There goes the whistle! And here comes Butch Wubbels, famous marriage counselor, late as usual. Whoops! We forgot to mention before, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Rindels, the former Linda Yaste, are enjoying their second honeymoon during this trip. And its Bon Voyage to New York as we head for Europe!

Our first stop is London. Here we find Madame Klein, famous hair stylist for all the heads of Europe. Also here is Marcia Miller famous plastic surgeon specializing in noses.

So long to England and we're off to Lisbon, Portugal, where other classmates are gathered from all over Europe. First on the boat is the former Karen Growden waving good-bye to her admiral husband who is sailing the opposite direction. Also coming aboard at this port is Roger Bickelhaupt, chief mechanic for Chrysler Corporation. And with him is Professor Patricia A. Ebert, who is teaching a course on how to be more intellectual.

Next we docked in Rome, Italy to pick up the famous Italian lover, Darrell Hanson. Also here is the renowned writer, Jim Gebhard, who has just finished his latest book, How to Throw The Stick. Accompanying him is his colleague, John Hanson, who is president of the F. F. of the World.

Farewell--and on to Egypt. We find Dave Rappe and Lester Friemann who have devised a drag strip on the sands. They are sorry to leave their homes but now we are off to India to get Dave Palmer, who has been helping them with their agricultural problems. Also coming is Arvin VanderPlas, who last year won first prize at the World's Fair with his Physics demonstration. Accompanying him are Pat O'Conner and Manford House, his bodyguard.

And now to end our cruise we journey to Hawaii. There we will be guests of Barb Yaste. She will provide the entertainment with a dance from the girls of her hula school. Most of us have not eaten Hawaiian food so we will be served a typical Hawaiian meal by the famous cook, Janet Jones.

Well, well, home at last. Wasn't our trip exciting? But I wonder what will happen in the future, in another fifteen years, don't you?

I, Roger (call me if there's a party) Bickelhaupt, will my love for having a good time to Doug (let's go!) Fairburn.
I, Pat Ebert, will my ability to go on a diet to Mary (I don't need to diet) Krammer.
I, Allen Ekholm, will my love for Yogi Bear to Eloise Kinneberg and Diane Wissing.
I, Nancy Engle, will my athletic ability to Geraldine (that's good for the figure) Growden.
I, Steve (I exercise nightly) Foster, will my manly physique to Charlie (I need some padding) Sickle.
I, Les Friemann, will my corn growing ability to Sandy (just call me corny) Alderman.
I, Murph Gartner, will my love for girls to Art (I'm shy too) Pluim.
I, Jim (just call me speedy) Gebhard, will my love for cops to Robert McKnight.
I, Gerald Growden, will my love for Chatfield to Marlene (I prefer Lanesboro) Johnson.
I, Karen (what are my morning classes?) Growden, will my skipping school ability to Emmet (I wouldn't think of it) Gartner.
I, Darrell Hanson, will my job at Gartner's Super Market to Diane (we feature old DUTCH Potato Chips) Prinsen.
I, John Hanson, will my rompin' stompin' Ford to Betty Larson and Scott Soffa (we prefer Chevy's!)
I, Shirley Hanson, will my shorthand ability to Bill Broadwater.
I, Manford House, will my guitar to Allen (I don't have to serenade) Fingerson.
I, Jerilyn Hovey, will my way with teachers to Ed (I wish I could stay in class) Miller.
I, Pat Johnson, will my headaches for getting a ride home to Yvonne (I don't need to worry) Hoppe and my ability to ask "intelligent" questions to Ralph (I know what I'm talking about) Gross.
I, Janet Jones, will my ability to milk cows to Diane (do you pump the tail?) Burgess and my love for the farm to Pat Soiney.
I, Mary (watch that ditch) Klein, will my driving ability to Alice Larson and my hot Chrysler to the Junior girls (may they have as much fun as we did.)
I, Jeanette Larson, will my "giggles" to Helen Starks.
I, Marcia Miller, will my queenship to Don (aren't I gracious?) Krause.
I, Stan (oh hum!) Nelson, will my boundless energy to Tom Shanahan and John Ostrem.
I, Pat O'Connor, will my track abilities to Marge Barnes and Pat Shannahan (we don't have to run).
I, Dave Palmer, will my Saturday night trips into town to Janet Scheevel.
I, Dave (what did he say?) Rappe, will my attentiveness in class to Steve Halverson and Bob Pickett.
I, Pat Reilly, will my dancing ability to Sharon Parker and Janice Gartner.
I, Roger Rindels, will my love for Greentown to JoAnn (I rather like it too) Rindels.
I, Joyce (I'm a devil in disguise) Roelofs, will my love for slumber parties to Wylie (I love 'em too) Hovey.
I, Ruth Roelofs, will my cornet to Joe (I blow too!) Pfister.
I, Dave (just call my Gorgeous George) Schmidt, will my wrestling ability to Gary Ellinger and my beard to John (give me a few years) Ashton.
I, Wayne Stapelkamp, will my roller skating ability to Robert Miller.
I, Jeanne Thorson, will my love for Fountain to Mary (I'll keep it on the map) Befort.
I, Arvin Vander Plas, will my ability for solving physics problems to Lyle and Loyal (two heads are better than one) Mensink.
I, Butch Wubbels, will my acting ability to Mary Tlougan and my singing ability to Ralph Hanson.
I, Barb (night owl) Yaste, will my night life to Red (I need my beauty sleep) Watson.
I, Linda Yaste, will my ability to argue to Ann (I know it all!) Amdahl.

The band this year, under the direction of Mr. Donald Trembly, consists of forty-five members from seventh through twelfth grades. They added color to all the home games by presenting marching drills during the half time. Three concerts were given this year instead of the usual two. On December 15, they gave the Christmas concert. Ir. February, a winter concert was presented, followed by a third concert later in the spring. The band, along with the chorus, went to the district music contest in April. Many new instruments including drums, French horns, and music stands, as well as a new tape recorder were acquired by the group this year.

Queen Marcia Miller

Homecoming

Queen Marcia and King Dave Schmidt

Our Homecoming festivities began with the crowning of the queen on Thursday evening, October 1. The program, under the direction of Donald Trembly, was held in the new gymnasium. The king's attendants, Roger Bickelhaupt, Murph Gartner, Steve Foster, and Gene Wubbels, were seated on the stage. The processional, led by King Dave Schmidt, consisted of the five queen candidates, Marcia Miller, Karen Growden, Mary Ann Klein, Jeanette Larsen, and Linda Yaste.

King Dave read the Proclamation which was followed by the introduction of the football team and yells by the cheerleaders. The queen, as chosen by the student body, was Marcia Miller. She was crowned by Dave Schmidt and presented with a bouquet of roses by the vice-president of the Student Council, Emmet Gartner.

On Friday afternoon the Homecoming parade was held. First prize for the floats went to the junior class while the Senior's float was "runner-up." This year, instead of using convertibles, a float was provided by the teachers for the queen and her attendants.

Our Homecoming slogan, "Ground the Gophers," was put to use on Friday night as we won our game with Chatfield with a score of 6-0.

Lee Hall's orchestra furnishes the music for our Homecoming dance which was held after the game.

"Blue Hawaii" provided the theme for the '59 Junior-Senior Prom which was held May 1. Music was furnished by Johnny Roberts and his orchestra. A delightful lunch was served by the Junior mothers. The Grand March, the main feature of the evening, was held at 10:00 p.m. followed by a wonderful evening of dancing until 1:00.

A most enjoyable time was had by all.

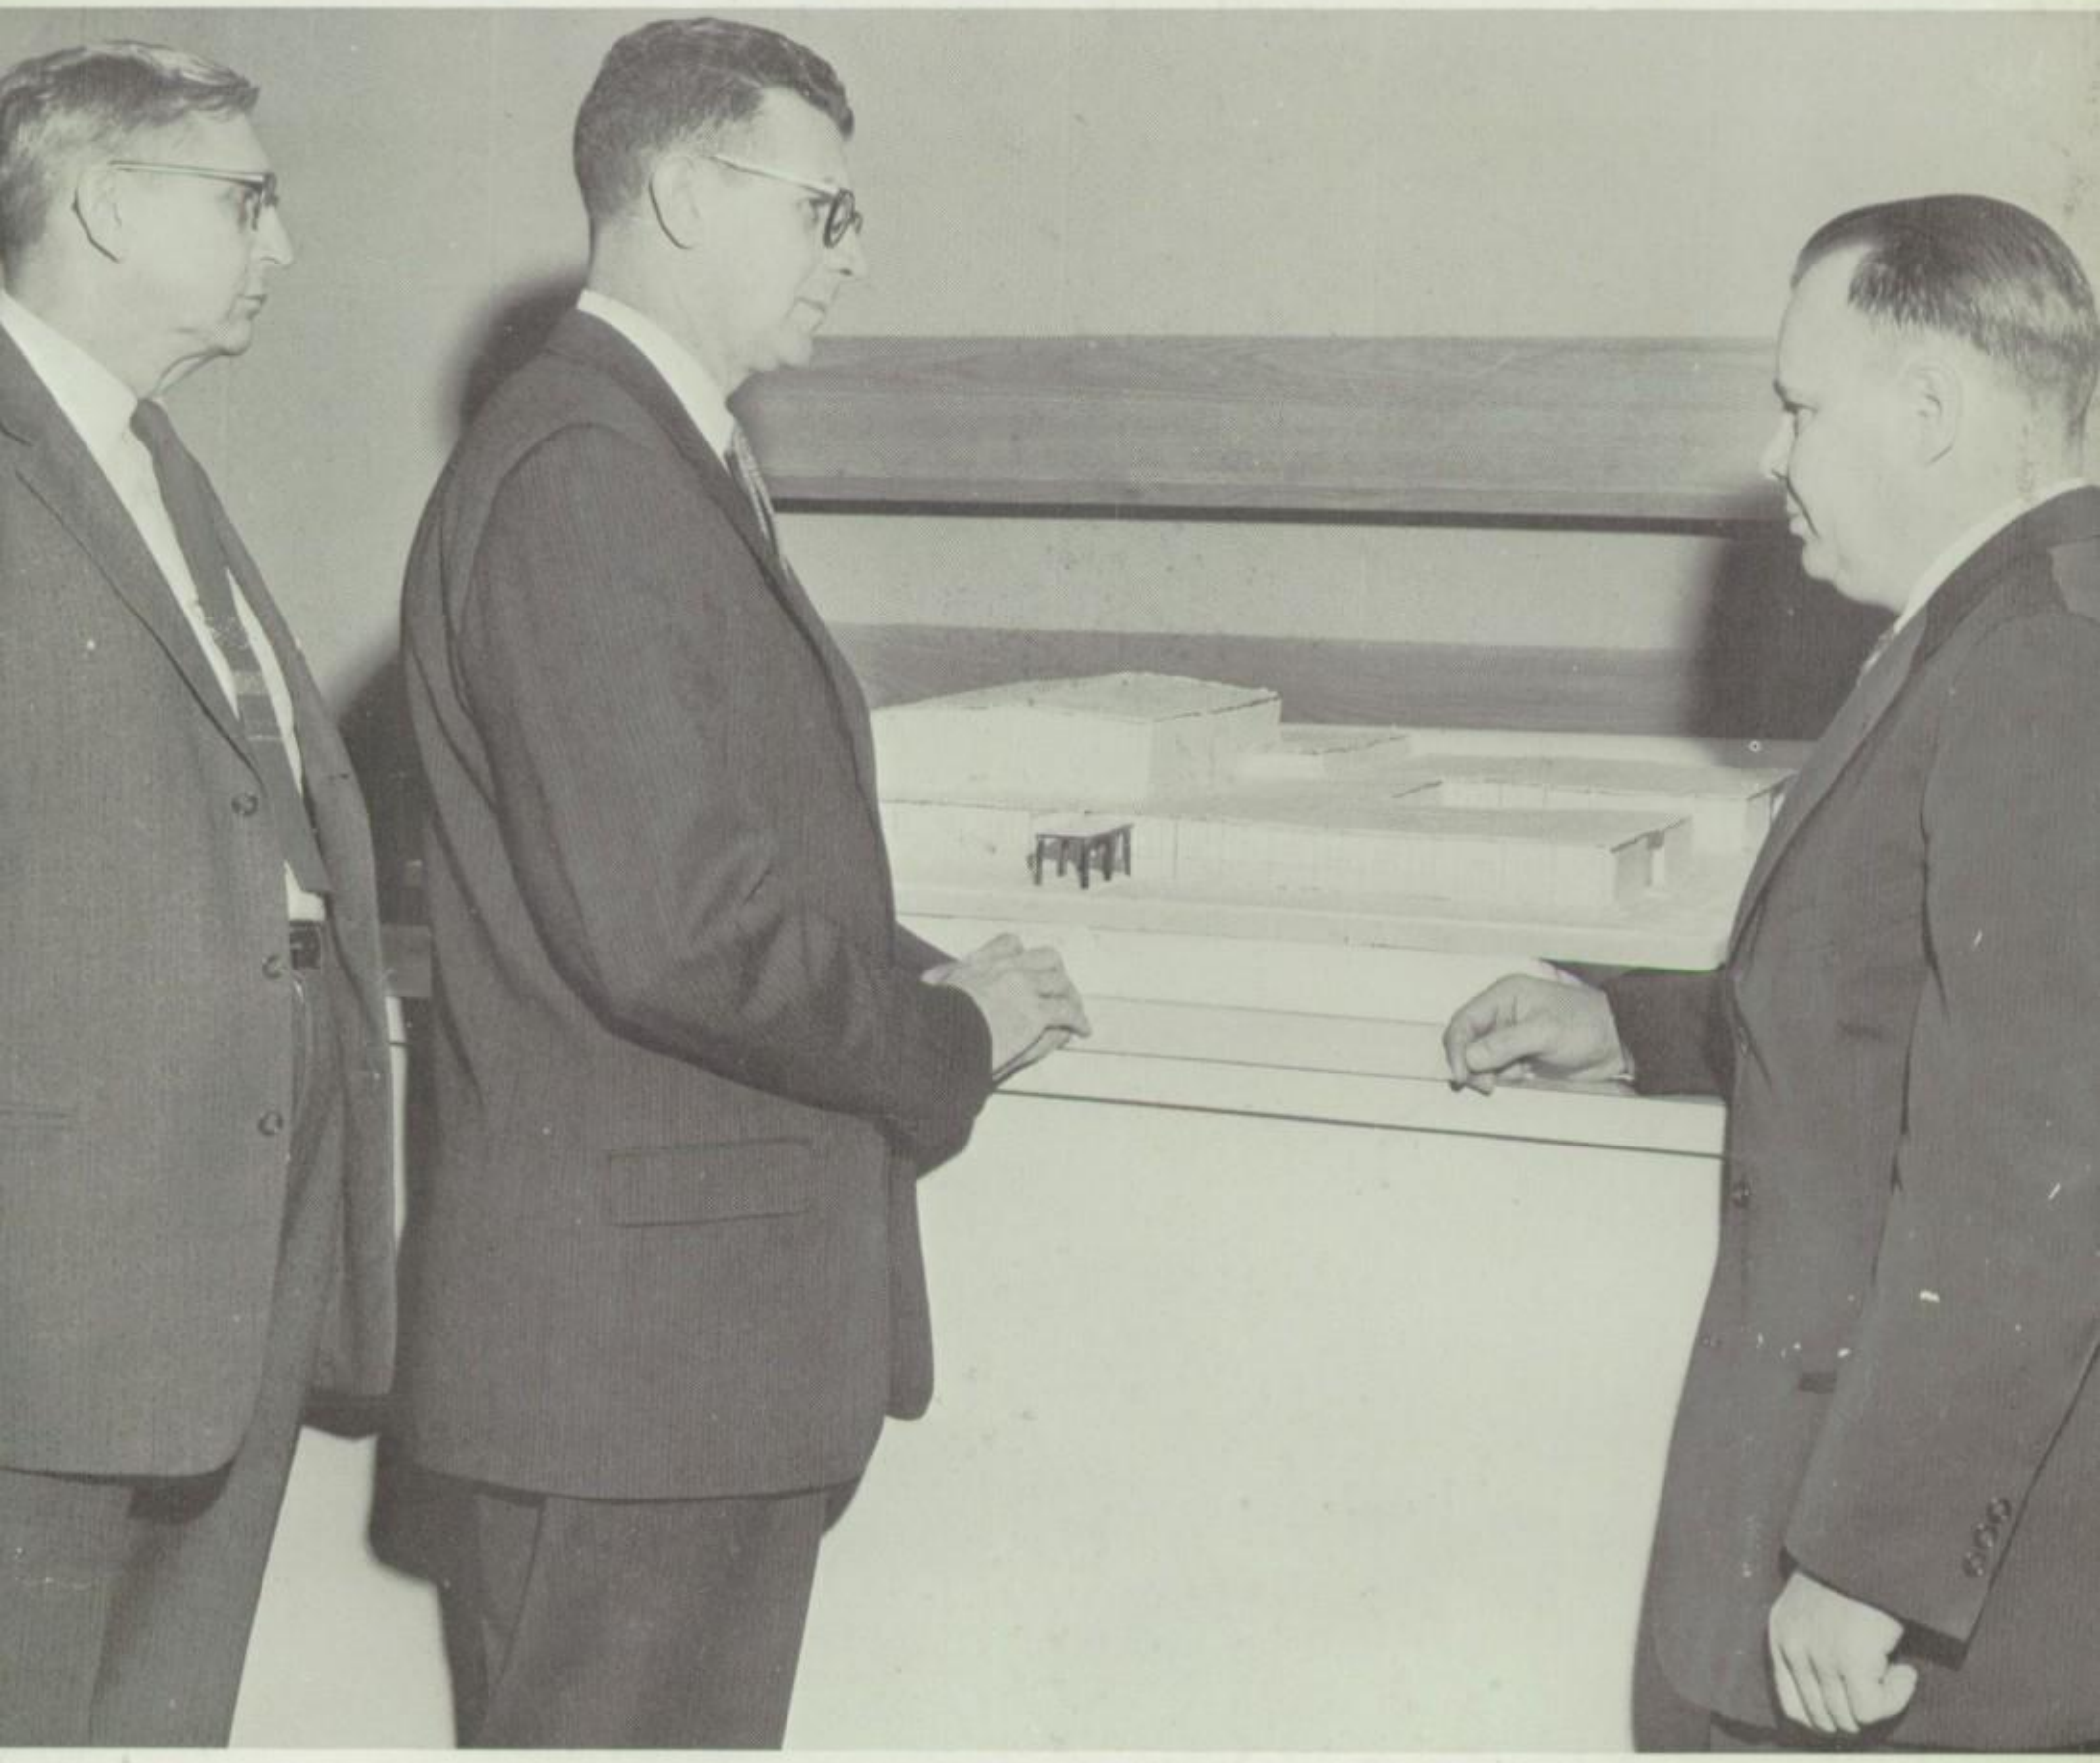
School Dedication



Shown above: Superintendent H. B. Froemming, Dr. James V. Moon, and Mr. Jerry Ostrem, president of the board of education.

The dedication and open house of our new Junior-Senior High School, District 233, was held on November 15, 1959.

Mr. Hubert Swanson, the architect, presented the building to the board of education. Following this, Dr. James V. Moon, Superintendent of Rochester Public Schools, gave the dedication address. Both the band and the chorus participated in the program; conducted tours followed and refreshments were served in the hot lunch room.
